

Aspirational Branding & Marketing
for Inspirational Brands

About Us

Creative ID creates aspirational branding and marketing for inspirational brands.

We join the dots between your branding, marketing and customers to create purposeful engagement between brand and customer to lead to success.

A client's perspective

“What I appreciate about Vaishali is she acts as though she is part of our team.

Vaishali is not just a creative and exceptional designer, but also an effective project master.”

Andy Papa, RS Xperience

International

Creative ID takes an international perspective on branding and marketing for inspirational food, hospitality and lifestyle brands.

Our multi-lingual team works with clients all over the world, offering a full-service agency approach but with a small team ethos alongside our wealth of expertise.

We partner with brands who wish to operate globally, bringing our diversity and inclusion expertise and our extensive international experience to bear in the relevant markets.

The Creative ID team prides itself on enabling and creating connections for our clients from our considerable business network which spans countries in every continent.

Inspirational

What drives our work is our belief that branding and marketing is an emotive experience, and successful branding harnesses this to create purposeful and long-lasting customer engagement.

At the heart of our approach is the aim to create meaningful connection and engagement between a brand and its customers. This authentic, subconscious persuasion drives customer connection to a brand - and ultimately, to success.

We use our creativity and experience to create inspirational, premium brands that our clients are proud of, and that bring their businesses to life for their loyal customers.

We understand that to create successful, inspirational brands, we need to build the whole brand experience and that consistency of this experience is the key to unlocking brand potential and growth.

Integrity

Our aim as a business is to create positive impact, both on our clients' businesses and the wider world.

We want to build a Creative ID community where inspirational businesses can come together and create positive impact together.

We have started on this path with our pledge to give 10% of our profits to charity, to help make a difference in other people's lives.

But we want to go further and invite brands who share in this mission to make a difference, work with integrity, and come on the journey with us.

About Vaishali

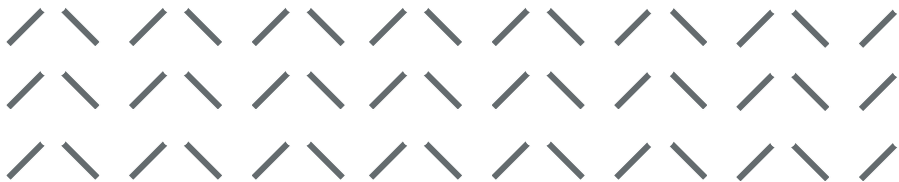

I am a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Marketing (FCIM) and Founder and Creative Director of Creative ID. I am an entrepreneur, award-winning designer and philanthropist.

I am an advisor for several charities worldwide and have pledged since I started the business in 2000 to give 10% of profits to charity, to help make a difference to other people's lives.

I bring my diversity and inclusion expertise and my extensive international experience into my branding and marketing work.

I am regularly called upon for industry comment and featured in numerous publications, blogs and media including Forbes, Huffington Post, BBC, Metro, Squaremeal, Authority Magazine and d&i Leaders.

I split my time between my London and Dubai bases.

Kind words

Brand Development

“When I approached Vaishali Shah to design a logo for my newly launched Vaasu by Atul Kochhar, I was confident she would do a great job as she had already designed various projects for me over the past 20 years.

Vaishali went the extra mile to fully understand what the logo should convey about the restaurant. Vaishali and her team encapsulated the essence of Vaasu first time without any changes needed.”

Atul Kochhar, Michelin star chef

Elevate

“Vaishali’s experience in the industry, advice and thinking-outside-the-box method has led us to develop and plan a clear marketing strategy.

We share a fantastic working relationship and Vaishali is always available to bounce ideas off. Her advice has been invaluable and has enabled us to develop a firm base to work from going forward.”

Sita B, fashion business owner

Cultural Consultancy

“Vaishali was absolutely phenomenal! She took the time to understand my brand and made such insightful, useful suggestions on how to be more inclusive and welcoming to a wider audience - many of which I was able to implement straight away!

She hits the perfect balance between expert professionalism and friendly approachability, and I felt so comfortable working with her to elevate the cultural sensitivity of my brand.”
